

Mrs. Buena Lee Clarke

November 29, 1938 - June 25, 2014

Buena Lee Clarke was born on November 28, 1938 to the late Elem and Hattie Hill, Sr. in Eutaw, Alabama. Buena was the second oldest of four children. Her older brother, Elem Hill, Jr. preceded her in death.

Buena was educated in the Alabama public school system and later attended Tennessee State University. Buena became the mother of one son, Jackie Hill. Buena then moved to Michigan and began her employment with the United States Postal Service. She remained there until her retirement.

Buena accepted Christ at an early age and in 1961 became a devoted member of Macedonia Primitive Baptist Church. Buena was devoted to the word of God and she lived a life that exemplified her love for the Lord. She was very active in her church and became the acting mother, church treasurer and finance director until her health prevented her from attending.

Buena was an avid sports fan. She loved baseball, basketball, football and the Olympics.

Buena met Cyril Leroy Clarke, Sr. and in 1980 they were joined together in marriage. Together they shared a blended family.

“ My Aunt Buena was a phenomenal wonderful wise woman of God, there is great conciliation in knowing that because of the Godly life she lived, she is now sleeping in Jesus 1 Thessalonians 4:14-18 and in knowing this I can also say as it is written in 2 Corinthians 5:8 We are confident, I say, and willing rather to be absent from the body, and to be present with the Lord. RIP Aunt Buena from your Great Niece Lavonne Whitt.
