

Mr. Caleb Morris Smith

July 19, 1938 - July 1, 2014

Reflecting On The Life Of Caleb Morris Smith:

Caleb Morris Smith Jr. was born on July 19, 1938 in Detroit, Michigan to Caleb Morris Smith Sr. and Esther Trier, who both preceded him in death. Caleb was the third oldest of five siblings, Gearaldine Jamison and Sandra Walker, two brothers and sister who preceded him in death. He attended the Inkster School system in Michigan.

Caleb also served as First Class Private where he received an honorable discharge in 1955. Later, Caleb became employed at Monsanto Chemical Plant where later he retired after 35 years.

Caleb was a God-fearing man, humble at heart, quiet, soft-spoken and if help was needed he was there. In his spare time he sung with; The Holy Wonders, The Cavaliers and the Spiritual Paraders. Caleb met Alma Jean Alexander in 1980 and they were united in union on March 11, 2000. She was the apple of his eye.

“ I remember Caleb and Jean working together in their yard with Caleb assisting Jean's green thumb. They were an adorable couple. I remember our dog, Zeus, and their big guy, Brutus playing through the fence like two big babies. Claeb and Jean loved their pets as we do.

Someday Caleb will visit the Rainbow Bridge and see his beloved dogs again !
