

Mrs. Calista C. Miller-Burton

January 29, 1923 - September 16, 2016

Going Home Celebration For Calista C. Miller-Burton:

Calista Wilson was born January 29, 1922 in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania to Joseph Wilson and Della Wilson.

Calista accepted Christ at an early age. Calista was affectionately known as “Carol” by her family and friends.

Calista attended an all girls school in the Philadelphia School System. She graduated top of her class in 1940. The same year she met her beau, a Navy Seabee, Grady Miller Sr. and they married, then had one of their six children before moving to Detroit, Michigan shortly after.

She started her 37½ year career with the largest mental health hospital in Michigan, Clinton Valley Center in Pontiac. Once retired, Calista pursued her passion for writing, where she became a published poetess.

Calista departed this life September 16, 2016.
