“ Calvin Buxton was my nephew in law legally but he was my brother in real life. We will miss him so much but we will always cherish the special moments that we were blessed to share. May God keep his loving family during this time of transition and give them His peace that surpasses all understanding.

“ I work with REV. CAL in the wheel housing department many years ago, he was a great foreman at Detroit Hamtramck PLANT, he also came to many of our bible studies during break time, with Elder John Cosey, Rev Willie Brown, Deacon, Whisenant, REV.Jimmy Davis, Bro.Don Melson and so many others we always will remember the songs that was sung and the Spirit of the Lord falling down on us during those bible studies. May God bless and comfort the family. BRO. Don Melson
