“ How special Calvin Jones is to me. He's the bridge that brought me over in a time of need, he was Always Able to Help when anyone needed him financially, he moved me every 6 months, he's the sharpest dresser with the most expensive clothes that I've ever known. 55 yrs. ago when I couldn't afford a baby table and chair for my daughter he stepped in and purchased it for my daughter. That very table still sits in my basement today. Love, Your Niece/Sister-in-law Lily ❤️

I'm still wrapping my mind around the reality that my big brother is gone. Am forever grateful that he and my sister-in-law Mott graciously opened their home to me many summers while raising children of their own. I can only repay this debt with gratitude and love locked in my heart forever!!
