“ My son, Harold, knew Camren for only a day, but Camren left a lasting impression on him. Although there was a difference in age, Camren touched Harold deeply in just those 24 hours, and he is so saddened by the loss of his new friend. They laughed and played together and had so much in common including lacross and singing. Camren must be special, indeed, and all the comments here show how much he was loved and how much he will be missed. Harold will never forget him and mourns for him everyday. We will keep all of you in our prayers.

“ Carmen and family I'm truly sorry for your loss, Camren(Cam) was a very kind, loving and full of life young man, I've never saw him without his big vibrant smile and wit, the two things that all that knew him will truly miss. So during your time of sorrow trust in the Lord knowing that He is the great lifter, he doesn't expect you to carry this load all alone, ask of him and you shall receive, the load will be lighten so you can continue to heal one day at a time. I hope you know our families will that this journey together.. Love you, Pearl & Wade

“ You used to bounce from one end of the church hall to the next with your Gameboy in hand, always excited, forever happy. How could someone so small possess so much energy and imagination? I used to wonder. So very hyper and springy. Like fresh baskets of flowers handpicked by a grandmother's hands, you were sweet. And Camren, you were sunshine. I pray that God wraps his blanket of love around your family, your friends, your loved ones as the Earth mourns in knowing there's a little less spring in it on this day...When I read this sad news not more than an hour ago my heart ached as I wondered if you spent your last moments alone and afraid. I started to cry but was quickly reminded of who you were and who God is, so you were neither alone nor afraid. God was with you and I believe that you always knew the kind of spirit He gave to you, one of power and of confidence, not of fear. You will truly be missed. I didn't even know how old you were! In my mind you were still that little chocolate hyper boy, bouncing from one end of the church hall to the next, Gameboy in hand....On days when I feel lackluster, when I'm not using my imagination, I'll try to think of you because your spirit and your energy blessed us to know what it feels like to have spring. Live in peace little King. We love you.

“ Camren was a genuine, sweet and funny kid. He presented his true self to everyone he met. He was caring and often noticed when others needed help. He was ambitious and you couldn't help but encourage him. My thoughts and prayers are with Camren's family and also with the young people he touched.

“ Dearest Carmen, I'll continue to pray that the God of all Comfort grant you and your family the peace that the Word of God promises. Be comforted in the knowledge that apart from the many wonderful things that Camren experienced because of your sacrifices, you gave him a special gift when you introduced him to the Lord. That is the most beautiful gift that a mother could give a child. Bless your precious heart and may God dispatch a legion of angels to minister to you, Lynell and Ricky right now and always. Bless you Tony for your support. Love you much.....Rev. Deb
