

Carl Edwin Craft

July 6, 1936 - October 12, 2023

In Loving Memory of

On Thursday, October 12, 2023, God chose a good and faithful servant to come home.

Carl, lovingly called “Supe” by his children and grandchildren went home to be with the Lord. At an early age he joined Little Rock Missionary Baptist Church. Carl was a native of Gulfport Mississippi. He was born on July 6, 1936, to Warren Craft and Annie Mae Mapp Ingram who preceded him in death. He graduated from 33rd Avenue High School where he met Viola Robinson who would later become his wife of 44 years.

He moved with his wife and children to Detroit Michigan in 1965. He worked for Kraft Foods and was an active member of the International Brotherhood of Teamsters, retiring during 2001.

He joined Good Shepard Missionary Baptist Church in 2013 and was an active member of the choir and participated in vacation bible school. He also shared his baritone voice with many as a member of United Voices in Christ as they participated in church concerts held in the Metro Detroit area.

A few of his many interests consist of going out dancing with his wife, watching western movies, playing bid whist, dominos and family picnics on Belle Isle.

He is preceded in death by his wife Viola R. Craft and leaves to cherish his memory six children: Cynthia Craft, Valarie Craft-Brown (husband Tommie), Diana Craft, Carllette Craft, Carl Craft II and Chyanne Craft; three grandchildren, Darryl Craft, Clinton Craft, Gianni Tatum and family and friends.
