“ I don't know how I found this obituary. But I know his whole family at one time. I went to elementary school with him. He loved the Temptations as a little boy. I would always remember him singing Ball of Confusion" in class. My sister Connie dated his Brother Sam as a teen. My mother at one point did all the women's hair in his immediately family. This heartbreaking to learn. Prayers to his loved ones. He is was a great person. Great personality.

“ It's really hard for me to talk about my Bo. That's the nickname that I called all the guys that worked under my supervisor at American Title and Fidelity National Title. Carl's s nickname for me was boss which stuck to me thru all his other places of employment. Carl was a diligent worker under my supervision, no complaints when asked to work overtime on Fridays and Saturdays as long as I promised my crew Happy Hours drinks, food and music when we finished, all on me! Lol.

After a few years after Carl left the Title insurance company, he had gotten a job with The City of Detroit water Detroit, I was working for another Title company downtown Detroit and we ran into each. He saw me and screamed my name, not Ruby, but Boss so loud I think the whole downtown heard him.

He said he had been looking for me for me over a year.

He wanted me to teach him how to map out acreage plots of land where they become subdivisions.

He wanted to take a test to move up from the water department to the Assessor and Appraisal office in the City of Detroit.

After about a month or so, he would come over to my office and I taught him everything about acreage, lot size and how to look up ownership to property.

He passed the test and got his promotion. Yay!

Carl and his wife Charlene took me for my first trip ever to New York City on a shopping trip. I got lost from the group looking up at the tall building, an hour later, Carl found me standing in the corner of a store front crying. Lol

Carl and our gang had great fun together every Friday for Happy Hours, he was always the most talkative and funny one in the group.

Missing you my Bo and the prayers you always said at the end of each of our conversations.

My sincere condolences to Charlene and family.

“ Carl personified kindness and empathy. He’s not just a friendly neighbor but the brother I always wished I had. His smile and laughter brightened the neighborhood. Always willing to help anyone that needed help, always ready to comfort when he saw someone suffering. We had endless conversations in his driveway while he worked on his cars and I never heard him say negative things about anyone. He generously gave his love to everyone he knew. I will miss him dearly.

My condolences to Charlene and rest of the family.

“ Carl was all about "The Love" and being a good neighbor. He always had a big hello and a warm smile. One of our favorite memories about Carl's goodness involved our dog Roxie who ran across 7-mile road. Carl was coming home when he saw her about to cross back to us. He stopped his car, got out, and halted traffic for her to cross back to us safely.

Carl was always ready to lend a hand or give helpful advice when needed. Also, we will miss his music in the warm months ahead.

Carl's loss feels like someone turned off a bright light.

Our thoughts, prayers, and condolences go out to Charlene and family.

“ Carl Smith!! What can I say? Carl was a GOOD DUDE!! Some felt that Carl got an unfair deal while other team members begged to differ, but at the end of the day, he was a good guy, loving those closest to him.....always kept it real in conversations and lastly, never had anything bad to say about anyone in the office. I never walked past his work station without him stopping me to "tell it like it is" or in his words, "chopping it up" lol. He was always trying to drop some knowledge down on me and for that, I will miss. I remember when he was the floor warden and one of the guards allowed a gun to pass through the check point. Dude took this role very seriously, jumped into action and almost got us all killed LMAO!!!!!!!!!! And as I look back, I'm still laughing!!!!
