

Mr. Carlton Bernard Ramsey

March 11, 1954 - January 4, 2019

His Story:

Carlton Bernard Ramsey was born on March 11, 1954, in Detroit, MI. He was the 3rd of 4 children, to Jerome and Reesie Ramsey. A very bright child from an early age, Carlton prided himself on being a straight “A” student, recognizing the importance of education and how it would transform his life.

He attended Central High School in Detroit, MI, graduating in 1972, and continuing his education at University of Detroit Mercy for college. After graduating he went on to pursue a career working for the state of Michigan, in various leadership roles over more than a 30 year period, eventually retiring in 2011.

He was an avid sports enthusiast. He enjoyed basketball, hockey, golf and football. He also had a love for film, specifically action movies, and smooth jazz music. When most people thought of him, they associated him as being a very intelligent man, full of great conversation, and always wanting to connect with others.

“ *To the Ramsey Family,
Our prayers are with you as you go through this difficult time in your life. I have known Carlton for many many years since our days back at the University of Detroit. He was a good friend and always had us laughing. He will truly be missed. My prayers go out to you Chris and your family. Sincerely, Darryl "Dap" Percival & Family Atlanta,
