“ I will always remember Carol's beautiful smile whenever we saw each other. We always had wonderful times together, sharing, laughing and reminiscing. We grew up as family in New Testament COGIC, and I've always looked upon Carol as my older sister. I rejoice her years spent on this side of Heaven and will miss her greatly.

I regret not being physically present to share in her Homegoing, however my heart and spirit are with you all.

*Much love,

“ To my Mrs.Carol,
I pick the prayer hand Becuz that's wat we did...Together
We would be at upper room on Our knees getting Our praise on....
Thats was some of my most precious Memories..Im gona miss U Ms.Carol U were a True woman of GOD and a good mom to your children,With out a doubt a Great friend n sister to me...My children loved you.
I know we have to leave this world,To get to our HOME in HEAVEN.
I SHALL SEE YOU AGAIN BEAUTIFUL
Save me a home near yours in HEAVEN so we could be neighbor's again.

“ Hi its me Mark this is one of the hardest things for me to do. I have a lot of memories a lot of good times and some bad also but the good always outweighs the bad mama you did everything that you could possibly do as A mother raising us into the intelligent 4 Queens and 1 King that we are today. You are going to be greatly greatly greatly missed but I know you are in a better place and you waiting on us so with that I love you I love you I love you and I'll see you in the morning.

*Your Son

I know Carol is rejoicing with her Heavenly Father as well as her Earthly Father (Elder Brantley). I've cried for my own selfish reasons. However, I know she has no more pain, no more worries and no more struggles. (To God be the glory)

I look back and thank God for the time I was blessed to have with her in my life. Through pulling our resources together to feed our children, sharing the laughter and the tears taught me the true meaning of a Friend that sticks closer than a (brother) Sister.

My prayer for her children is that God will grant them strength to endure, heal their hurt, mend their broken hearts, fill the void in the lives that they will surely feel and know that everything you need...God has it!

*Love you all and know your Mom is resting in the Almighty's Arms...

Just want to share one more fond memory... I was expecting my fourth child. My daughter Kris. I was struggling with a name for her. Her father wanted to name her Christine or Christina. Nothing against either of those names, I just wanted something more modern. I thought because his name was Steve, I could name her Stevi. Of course he wasn't going for that. I thought day and night, trying to come up with a name....needless to say Carol came through...as she had done so many times. She said " Why don't you name her Krystal?" It was a done deal!!! Thank you Carol for naming my daughter...so many of your memories will continue to live on!!!
