

Mrs. Carol Luegena Dixon

November 25, 1963 - January 27, 2014

Her Journey:

Carol Luegena Dixon was born to Madeline Lambert and Robin Washington (late) on November 25, 1963. Carol has three siblings, Mark, Troy and Jarline.

In 1968 her mother married Jarvis Lambert (late). He loved Carol very much and she loved and respected him until his death.

Carol at a young age met and married Bobby Morris Sr. in 1981. To this union four children were born Luegena, Bobby Jr., Stephaine and Michelle.

On May 22, 1992, Carol married Kenneth Darryle Dixon Sr. in Toledo, Ohio. To this union five children were born, Aisha, Robin (late), Rueven (late), James, and Kristian. She also gained a stepson Kenneth Darryle Dixon Jr. She was a devoted homemaker, wife and mother. She spent the next 21 years raising her children. She would make sure that they were safe, happy and taken care of. She gave every ounce of love to them. Truly Carol was a shepard watching after her own pasture. She cared for and loved each and everyone of her grandchildren and was present at most of their births.

Carol enjoyed life, with every endeavor, she thought out and planned and pursued it with all the details. She would not waiver from her first thought, no matter how much advise she would ask for when she made up her mind it was no turning back. She appreciated very much the support she received from family and friends that supported her endeavors in life. She was high spirited, colorful and glamorous. One of her favorite fashions was leopard print. She loved to dance, smile and laugh. Her special "me" time was to read, drawing and to crochet. Her favorite outing was shopping for her family and herself.

We all have spent special times with her. During her tender hours, she was lovingly called "Nana" by her youngest granddaughter Aubrielle. Aubrielle climbed up on the wheel of her wheelchair and gave her continuous sweet kisses on her cheek. Her son Kristian colored a Valentines picture for her and read her a story. Her daughters drew strength and were by her side. Her son James in his quiet manner, smiled and hugged his mom, and her husband Kenneth never left her side.
