

Mrs. Carolyn Jean Pearson

September 6, 1948 - January 6, 2014

Carolyn Jean Pearson was the first of six siblings. She was born on September 6, 1948 in Evergreen, Alabama to Sylvester and Jewel Byrd.

Carolyn was baptized and accepted Christ as her Lord and Savior at an early age. Growing up Carolyn was a nurturing and caring individual to her younger siblings, she took on this responsibility at a very young age after the loss of their Mother.

Carolyn was educated in the Detroit Public School system.

Carolyn was employed by the Department of Social Services as a social worker, in which she later retired. Carolyn loved bowling and was in many leagues, she loved traveling whenever and wherever she could, playing dominoes, doing word search puzzles, playing cards and reading most of all.

Carolyn made her transition on January 6, 2014.

“ Jean was my best friend for almost 40yrs.. We raised our sons together, we laughed, cried and had much fun together. I last spoke with her on her birthday, which I've always done for years now. As I have been saying to everyone who knew her, she never outwardly expressed sadness or unhappiness, she always kept you laughing. I would like to say to the family, wipe your tears because Jean is now entertaining the Angels...R.I.P., my friend forever

“ For my dear dear friend, I will miss you, all the good times, your giving open heart, trials and tribulations we went through. You were always the most upbeat person I knew!! You are and always be an inspiration to me. I love you my friend, my coworker, my travel partner! God bless you and your family.
