

Ms. Carolyn Rucker

February 18, 1951 - October 5, 2023

Carolyn Rucker was born February 18, 1951, in Inkster, Michigan, to the late Willie Rucker, her mother who preceded her in death. Carolyn was the fourth child born. She has one brother and sister who preceded her in death.

Carolyn confessed to Christ at an early age.

Carolyn attended Inkster High School. After moving to Detroit in 1968, Carolyn helped raise a lot of her siblings' children, besides other children, she was like a second mom to nieces and nephews because she had no children of her own. Some of you at this home going celebration can relate to this. She was a treasured neighbor and friend in her community. Carolyn loved her nieces and nephews and would cuss them out, but always had their backs when they needed her. She would do all her nieces' hair and buy all the necessary accessories. Carolyn loved soap operas and music. Her favorite song was "Going Up Yonder". She also loved choke sandwiches, for those of you who don't know, that's peanut butter and jelly.

Carolyn had a great relationship with her nieces and nephews, they could be down the street, and if she summoned them to come back home, just to fetch her a glass of water, even though she would have gotten it herself. They would because they loved her. All her nieces and nephews loved the way she made her special oatmeal, grits, and pannycakes.

She was also known for her humorous and cunning ways and laughter.

Carolyn's favorite pastime was "Word Search Books". Her two best friends were Tracey Chambers and Rosilyn Clayburne. Carolyn became ill during the beginning of the COVID-19 outbreak, her health started to decline, but not from COVID-19.
