“ *To the Family of Sister Williams:
Please accept my deepest condolences for the passing of your loved one. As one of Carolyn's spiritual sisters, we share the same hope that is promised in the Bible at Acts 24:15 that tells us that 'there is going to be a resurrection'. This means that you too can have a real hope of being reunited with Carolyn; when she hears Jesus' voice and come out of the memorial tomb. (John 5:28, 29) This is comforting because our Grand Creator hates death and has 'a yearning' to undo the effects of death. (Job 14:14, 15) May these Bible promises bring you comfort and strength during your grievous time.*

*Sincerely,
Mrs. G. Wright

“*Momma Williams,
I remember you came to my fashion show a couple years ago, and afterwards took a photo with me. I told you then, "Wow, I thought we were missing a model; you were supposed to be in the show with us!" And, you laughed and smiled. You always dressed so sharp. And, I was glad you were there.*

Someone recently passed this profound poem to me...it suits the moment:

*In the rising sun and in its going down, we remember her.
When we are weary and in need of strength, we remember her.
When we are lost and sick at heart, we remember her.
When we have joy we yearn to share, we remember her.
So long as we live, they too shall live, for she is now a part of us, as we remember her.
In the opening of buds and in the rebirth of spring, we remember her.
In the blueness of the sky and in the warmth of summer, we remember her.
In the rustling of leaves and in the beauty of autumn, we remember her.
In the blowing of the wind and in the chill of winter, we remember her.
In the beginning of the year and when it ends, we will always remember her.*

Momma Williams, I love you, and you will be truly missed.

“ A precious one from us has gone, A voice we love is stilled A place is vacant in our hearts, Which never can be filled. And after a long heartache, And many silent tears. But always beautiful memory of an Auntie I Love So Dear !!!!!!!!

“ Momma, your strength and words of encouragement to push forward and accomplish whatever we can set our hearts to do will live on within us. Our hearts are heavy with sadness right now, but we will look to Jehovah with the hope of seeing you young and vibrant again in that paradise. Love always, Douglas and all of your children.
