

Ms. Carolyn Tracy Young

July 10, 1966 - April 1, 2016

Celebrating The Life Of Carolyn Tracy Young:

Carolyn Tracy Young, affectionately known as Pooh Pooh, was born July 10, 1966 in Detroit, Michigan to Charles and the late Elfreda Young.

Carolyn accepted Christ at an early age and would often attend Triumph Church in Southfield, Michigan.

Carolyn attended the Detroit Public Schools system and was a graduate of Mumford High School, class of 1984. While in high school, Carolyn was part of the glee club and she sang a solo from Aretha Franklin's Gospel Greats. She was so excited about having that opportunity. One thing about Carolyn she loved music and she just hummed all the time and sometimes you would just have to ask her what are you humming? She would reply by laughing and simply say, "I don't know." After high school, Carolyn attended Michigan Computer Institute and recently she had returned to Wayne County Community College.

Carolyn was an employee for Action Data for over 24 years. Carolyn was currently employed with Home Depot as a cashier.

Carolyn met Charles Blackwell and they were blessed with two wonderful children, Charles Lamar Blackwell in 1993 and Brandy Lamara Blackwell in 1998.

Carolyn loved to go to Bell Isle and Greektown Casino on Sundays with her companion, Clarence Chapman. Carolyn loved going to concerts, birthday parties, and other events with her friends and family. She loved fishing with her son when he was in his teen years. Carolyn loved shopping with her daughter. She loved music and jazz was her favorite. She enjoyed most of all being a wonderful mother and only wanting the best for her children.

Carolyn departed this life and received her angel wings on Friday, April 1, 2016.

“ My sympathy to the family. Mere words cannot convey the overwhelming feeling of disbelief that can result from the death of a loved one. The pain, the grief and the feeling of helplessness can seem unbearable. My you find comfort in Jesus words "I am the the resurrection and the life, he who exercises faith in me even though he dies will come to life."-John 11:25
