Carrie Lee Twymon

Your life was a blessing
Your memories a treasure
Even though you're no longer with us
The world will change from year to year
Our lives from day to day
Our love and the memories of you
Shall never fade away
We love and miss you dearly
You're going to love PARADISE
Your Children

“ *To the family:
Our thoughts are with you during this difficult time. We are sorry for your loss and will be holding you in our minds as you travel the treacherous road of mourning. Although Mrs. Tywmon has left the earth, she will never fully be gone. She is here in the smiles of her children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren - and the generations that will follow. She will be remembered for her kindness and grace, which remained through it all, and by all who had the pleasure to bask in her warmth. May she rest in peace.*
