GOING HOME CELEBRATION FOR - CARRIE MAE WHITE

Carrie White was born in Carthage, Mississippi on May 4, 1934, the only child of her parents Kelley and Alma Nash (both preceded her in death).

Carrie was blessed with eight children, Linda Renaud (preceded her in death), Pamela White, Donnie White, Ronnie White (preceded her in death), Crystal White-Philpo (husband Mike), Angela White, Brian White (wife Marla) and Jonnie White (wife Angela).

Carrie has many grandchildren, Latoya, Ernest (EJ), Tashika, Dominique, Lanita, Ronnie Jr., Rondale, Jacob, Tyler, Jimmie (Moosa), Ju'Waun, Janay, Bianca, Bryah, Kourtnei, Nichelle, Bria (preceded her in death), Jonnie Jr., and Khorii.

She also has MANY great-grandchildren and great-great-grandchildren, too many to name, but ALL were loved and cared for in every way that she could. Carrie's whole world was her family; her children and grandchildren, and she would do anything to meet a need. She will forever be known as Mama, Ma, Grandma Carrie, Nana or Ms. White and even, to some old friends, Carrie-Lee. Mama was a mother to all. Anyone who knew her loved her. She was welcoming and she was "hip". And we will ALWAYS remember her favorite phrase, "Hi Dahlin".

“ I'm going to miss my lady so much! I'll never forget all the good times we had together! The day I met her we ate some watermelon. She said my Granddaughter has to have some fruit! Well we ended up eating almost the entire watermelon! I told her I was gonna go into labor cause I was so full! From that day we've been close! Ma hug Bria for me and tell her I miss her and love her so much!
