“ My favorite memory of Aunt Catherine was when I was around 8 years old. It was Christmas, and we all gathered at my grandmother's house. Aunt Cat gave me a sip of Scotch. After I guzzled it down, she winked at me and said, "tastes like apple juice, doesn't it?" and flittered out of the kitchen. For over a decade, she had me thinking that scotch tasted like apple juice!

Aunt Catherine, I will miss your laugh, your smile, your cute little voice and everything about you.

Love,

Nicole May

“ One time my cousin and I were in the alley playing with fire and I got scared I was going to get into big trouble. I knew it was wrong to play with fire. So I ran into the house and ran up to my aunt Catherine. She said what's wrong? All I could do is hold out my hands, she looked at me kind of crazy. So she smelt my hands, you been playing with fire she said. I responded, yes, she said wait right here. Auntie got my cousin and brought both of us into the bedroom. Auntie said stay here, I'm going to get a belt. Those were the longest 5 minutes ever. My cousin was so mad that I had went and told auntie. He said when she come back hurry up and squeeze out some tears and she'll stop. Sure enough we squeezed out some tears and she stopped. Even though she was furious, she didn't have the heart to hurt us even when we deserved it. Auntie always tried to be tuff but just couldn't. So sweet and kind to me! Needless to say, I learn to squeeze those tears out a lot quicker.

“ Ms. Stevens was like a mother to us growing up and always had our best interest at heart. She was a dear friend to our mother and always greeted me with a hug, no matter how long since I've seen her. Rest well ma'am! May God's love comfort you and keep your family and friends.
