“ Many years ago, I first met Cathy when she flew from Detroit to Alabama & I met her at the airport to give her a ride to her destination. She had such a humble & sweet spirit. Such a warm hearted & caring lady. Through the years, we kept in touch & frequently spoke by phone. I will always cherish the memories of how she unselfishly cared for & supported my brother. My heart was sooo broken to hear of her passing, but, heaven definitely has gained an angel. Condolences to the Smith family & my brother. May God comfort each of you during your hour of bereavement & the many days ahead.

Cathy and I hit it off the first time we met at Historic. We were both Southern girls. Cathy was better than a sister to me. She had a sweet spirit and was kind ,caring and giving. We enjoyed cooking together. We went to all the Metro Deaconess meetings together. We stuck together for some reason. I think it was the Lord. I miss her very much. BUT, I know I will see her on the flip side. Love you Cathy Ann Smith.
