“ *I didn't know it was you for sure until I saw someone called you "Pee Wee". I felt you in the Spirit and decided to see if I could find you on the internet and I found this heartbreaking webpage. We grew up together on Cheyenne. We were connected at J.R. King and Ludington schools. We were Cub scouts together and had meetings at Mrs. Robinson's house across the street from yours with Michael Whitehead. I am truly saddened by finding that you have passed on from us, but I shall see you on the other side my brother. Rest in peace, Charles! God bless you Mrs. Cummings and Carla, it's been a long time.
