“ Little Charlie as he was lovingly known was my second cousin. I remember when he was born and they brought him home from the hospital. He was so tiny that they placed him on a pillow. Lil Charlie and all of our cousins grew up together in Livingston and Bellamy Alabama. He kept everyone laughing as he had an enormous sense of humor with an appetite to match.. He would come to his Aunt Flittin's house every Sunday to enjoy her cooking and family fun. Later in life when I visited Detroit for a family reunion, it was Lil Charlie and his beloved wife, Ruth who went out of their way to make me feel welcomed and comfortable - a feeling I will never forget. May God bless Lil Charlie's family (Lil Darryl) and may God accept Lil Charlie into his kingdom for heavenly rest!!. Cousin Ruby Jean Easley Johnson.
