My condolences to the entire Lewis family; I will always remember my colleague as a soft-spoken and caring gentleman who always put children first, while providing excellence in education at all times...take comfort in knowing that he was one of God's best.

“ In the late seventies at Denby High there was a group of diverse students who were peer group leaders. These students made a major difference and positive changes that challenged our community during that time. We were led by Mr. Charles Lewis who had a vision like no other. Thank you brother for your service and sacrifice. Your in the Bond , Milton Goins....Alpha Theta '83...

“ I will always remember Coach Lewis as a kind, caring and loving man who always put his students and team members first. He was someone who had a kind word or a listening ear to share with whomever he came in contact with. Rest in Peace Coach Lewis. It was an honor to work with you at M. L. King High School.
