“ To Silvia and Brandy (my extended family) - Charles was the brother I never had a chance to know personally but knew of through the love that was and will continue to show in your eyes and hearts for him as well as through th memories you will share of him. The bond the three of you share can never be seperated by death but only made stronger by faith. May God love and the faith you have in him continue to cover and keep you during this time.

“ To Silva and family, wanted to share with you that I am praying for you and your family, great sympathy for his children and their mother. May God continue to comfort your heart, soul and ease the pain of losing a son, a brother, a father, and a friend to many.
