“ *Dad always took us South in the summer. One year we went to slydale, Louisiana, to see Auntie and Gramma. It rained and looked like it was raining frogs. These tiny frogs jumped each time a rain dropped on them. We were so excited we ran out into the rain bag as many as we could. Dad said do not bring those frogs into the car when we leave. Guess what! We wanted those frogs. They were ours. Well, the bag fell in the vehicle and we got what we could. Dad was not happy with us but told the story with a half smile on his face. My Hero.
