

Mr. Charles Stanley

January 25, 1959 - January 1, 2017

His Journey:

Charles Stanley was born on January 25, 1959 in the city of Detroit, Michigan to J.D. and Rosie Stanley. Charles accepted Christ and was exposed by upbringing to an atmosphere of honor to God. Charles attended the Detroit Public School system, and while in high school, Charles enjoyed and played basketball, representing Western High School throughout the city. Charles graduated from Western in 1977.

After high school, Charles worked in trucking and achieved certain certifications, allowing him to travel along the East Coast, drive for Ludington News, and eventually the SMART Transportation organization for some twenty years.

Charles was married to Karen Jackson, was later divorced and never remarried. Charles enjoyed basketball, particularly, and he was passionate about mentoring, coaching, and encouraging young people. As well, he had an entrepreneurial spirit and invested in some few ventures. Charles experienced a catastrophic event of illness, and was resolved to retirement in February of 2013.

Charles transitioned this life on January 1, 2017.
