“ Hello. My name is Cetoria Wiley, formerly Haynes. We attended Gethsemane Apostolic Church of God together. She would always call me CC. Even when I moved away, each time I came back she still had that smile and called me CC. I will miss seeing her when I come to Detroit, but I know all is well now.
Family, I am so sorry for your loss.

“ Sis. C. Howell,

At one point we shared life together literally, held many conversations and happy times which developed a special friendship. You were simply a sweet person; friendly with an outgoing personality; full of laughter and smiles will always be remembered.

I'm so fortunate I was able to share one last loving chat with you and your witty words which always brought laughter into any room. Although I am sad about your departure from this life, yet I am glad that you are now able to Live Life Again!

May God keep the Howell family in perfect peace and comfort.

*Your Long-time Friend,
Pastor Bowers*

“ Sis Charlestine (God-Aunt), we have shared plenty of memories throughout my childhood from introducing me to various foods to birthday/holiday moments; always encouraging me to explore new things which creates new experiences in life...I have never forgotten that wise nugget. Although it seemed you left us quickly, I'm so glad you are no longer in pain yet in purpose and resting in peace with your Heavenly Father.

To the family,
God guards you from every evil, he guards your very life. He guards you when you leave and when you return, he guards you now, he guards you always.

Ps 121:7-8

Your God-niece,
Sindy

“ My heartfelt condolences to the Howell family. I met Sis. Charlestine in 1969 at Gethsemane Apostolic Church of God. She was like a big sister. I will always remember her laughter, visiting her at her Higginbotham, and her dedication to the usher board and pastor's aide committee. She loved baking. Sis. Charlestine was a pillar at Gethsemane and I will miss her. Rest on with our Savior.

“Sis. Charlestine will always be remembered for lots of laughter. She was full of caring and giving. She loved Gethsemane and every member/friend that entered the building. I will remember her love for plants, love for the older saints and baking. Yes baking was her specialty

I know she loved the Lord God with all her heart. Will be looking for her in glory. Sis. Victoria Browning
