“ Dear Daddy,

Happy Father’s Day in Heaven.

Not a day goes by that I don’t think of you. The ache of your absence runs deep, and I carry a grief that words can never fully capture. I miss you so much, Daddy. I miss your laugh, your voice, your presence, your wisdom—you.

I want you to know I’m keeping your memory alive every single day. Your love still surrounds me, your lessons still guide me, and your spirit still comforts me in the quiet moments. I love you beyond this world, and I believe with my whole heart that forever doesn’t end with death.

When it’s my time, be waiting for me—because you’re the first person I’ll be looking for. There’s so much I want to tell you, so many hugs I need to make up for. Until then, please know how thankful I am for everything you did for me. You were the best dad a girl could ever ask for, and you gave me a life full of love, laughter, and strength.

Your grandkids love you so much, and now your great-grandkids do too—even if they never got to meet you, they know you through me. I carry you with me everywhere, in everything I do.

I still remember everything about you. Every detail, every moment. I pray you’re at peace, Daddy. I pray you’re resting in light and watching over us all. I hope—more than anything—that you’re proud of me.

I love you, forever and always.

Your daughter. □

“ My heart is forever broken daddy. I love and miss you so much. I can't talk about you without crying. It never got easier for me, time hasn't healed my wounds, I pray you knew how much I loved and appreciated you. I just want to make you proud of me.

the morning after you died.
I realized it wasn't all just a bad dream.
and in that moment,
the grief hit harder than anything I have ever known.
the sun will rise,
as if nothing happened.
it felt like the world betrayed,
and that is when I learned what heartbreak truly is.

“Love never truly fades. Even when someone is no longer part of your life, the love you felt for them remains within you. It transforms and becomes a part of your emotional landscape, but it doesn't disappear. Learning to live without someone you once loved deeply is one of the hardest lessons, but over time, you find a way to carry on, holding that love in a different, quieter place within your heart. Advice: It's okay to still feel love for someone, even after they're gone. Healing is about learning to live with that love, not erasing it.

I love you dad

“ Thinking about you dad, I have so much on my mind that I want to tell you. First off I'm thinking I'm coming to terms that I'll give more love than I'll ever receive in this lifetime. Marriage I don't see in my future anymore. I don't think God has that for me. I think I'm meant to be alone. It sucks but I think it's safe. I developed this phobia of being abandoned. Everyone I loved and helped has abandoned me and it hurts.

Tired of being strong sometimes and depressed. All I want is family.

“ I know you see it all.

Dad just be here with me. I slept with your ashes for two days. I was in deep sorrow. I miss you. I miss going into your room, while you are watching tv to nap and take a break from the world. It was the only place where I felt I could truly rest dad.. without having to think or watch my back.

Being with you is where I felt most loved. I miss that. You were my person dad. My best friend, my teacher, my hero, my shining knight, my go to, my everything, and I just miss you.

I so need one of those naps in the room while you are watching basketball. I dream it often but I just miss that!

My heart is hurting. Bad.

I never thought my heart would be broken like this. All of its pieces on the floor still and I can't seem to pick it up.

I hope I told you enough times what you meant to me. I pray you knew it. I pray you know if I could've did anything to change that night I would've.

I begged and begged God to give you back to me. I told him I needed you.

I feel by myself without you! I am trying. So dad send me advice and send me your courage and send me your support and strength!

Send me a lot more 43's! Thats how I'm reminded you are with me please send me more!

I love you I love you!!!

“ Tell me, what does it look like in heaven?
Is it peaceful? Is it free like they say?
Does the sun shine bright forever?
Have your fears and your pain gone away?
'Cause here on Earth it feels like everything
Good is missing since you left
And here on Earth, everything's different
There's an emptiness
Oh-oh, I
I hope you're dancing in the sky
And I hope you're singing in the angel's choir
And I hope the angels know what they have
I'll bet it's so nice up in Heaven since you arrived
So tell me, what do you do up in Heaven?
Are your days filled with love and light?
Is there music? Is there art and adventure?
Tell me are you happy? Are you more alive?
'Cause here on Earth it feels like everything
Good is missing since you left
And here on Earth everything's different
There's an emptiness

To the Daughter Who Has to Wake up Fathers Day Without Her Dad,

I get it.

I get that he will be the last thing on your mind when you went to bed Saturday night, and he will be the very first thing on your mind when you wake up Sunday morning.

I get it.

I get the broken heart, the lump in your throat; that physical ache deep, deep down in your belly.

I get it.

I get the wanting of him; the needing of him. I get the longing for even just one more moment with him.

I get it.

I get the one more time to just be able to play catch with him.

I get it.

I get that yearning for just one more conversation, just one more piece of advice, just one more comforting hug (because is there anything better than a daddy hug? the answer is no).

I get it.

I get the fake smile that you will wear, the forced laughter that you have, the “Yeah, I’m okay. Thanks for asking” that you will respond with on that day.

I get it.

So, To The Daughter Who Has to Wake up Fathers Day Without Her Dad,

While on that day you may feel more alone than ever,

Please know that you are not.

Because this daughter right here, the one who has to wake up on Fathers Day without her dad?

She gets you! 📍📍📍📍📍

“ Daddy,

My heart is extremely heavy and my eyes are just flooded with tears daily .. I'm not strong without you. I cry literally everyday to myself because I just miss you and my heart longs for you.

I'm filled with guilt & sadness. I just can't believe you're gone.. just like that. I'd do anything to have you back, God knows I would. I plead to him every day to bring you back, I know it's impossible but my heart brings me to that point. I just need to know you're okay. Please show me a sign that you're still with me daddy. I need it.

“ Daddy,

I just listen to a song and instantly thought of you and cried “Forever” by James Blake. I always wondered how people lose loved ones and able to go on.. I am drowning with sorrow & guilt & broken heart ache.. I just miss and love you so much! A part of me died with you when you went to be with God. I know you want me to go on but I can’t do that I just love you! There’s no me without you! Time does nothing for me but make my heart long for you even more.

You’re my heart daddy! I love you ... forever!

Yesterday was Mother’s Day I was truly miserable.. I’m so overwhelmed with grief I literally cried all day, my days are longer without you, my heart aches, I’m just existing, I must’ve begged God to give you back to me over 100 million times. “ Daddy,

I'm sure you already know and showing your best friend the ropes in heaven. Uncle Sid passed away Sunday March 14th 2021. My heart is completely broken, I feel like my whole childhood is being snatched from me. This is unreal. I'm in complete shock. I know he's reunited with you & his loved ones but I'm just hurting. I'm trying to find comfort that you aren't alone and now joined by your best friend just like the old times. He was there for me when you passed so please thank him for me. Life is just hard here, I have almost everything I want but what I actually want I can't buy. I would do anything to see you smile again, to hug you, to kiss your forehead and just be able to tell you that you're the best daddy ever.

People think I grieve way too hard but until you lose someone you actually love people don't know how I feel. There's not a day that I'm not crying over you daddy. My heart is truly, truly broken & I'm living in saddens because of grief. I need you.

Please come visit me in my dreams

“ Dad,

I miss you so much it, my heart completely ache. I never long for someone in my life as much as I long for my daddy! This can't be life!!! I can remember the last time I was happy and that was at 9/5/2017. The biggest guilt I have is I wasn't there when you needed me to be. I never should've left you. I replay and replay that day in my head over and over again! Down to the seconds of the day! Waking up with guilt on my heart and sadness embedded in me is a task itself! I miss you so much! I cry and cry over and over again! Pled to Jesus because this can't be life. I love you so much!!! I'm forever grateful for you! Everything I do is on the strength of you! I don't have strength of my own, I'm leaning on my angel wing because I'm weak and broken. Today I talk to Logan and he misses you too. Soon as I saw his name I couldn't do nothing but cry per usual. Crying is my new normal, telling myself to smile is my new normal..you have a major in pack in my life! I just want to be the kind, genuine, person you always were! I love you!

“Daddy,

Yesterday was your birthday, happy 78th! I put on a great face as I always do but I am shattered. My heart is in pieces complete pieces. Life without you has been pure hell for me. I can't function without you. My days are longer, my nights are spent in tears of wondering are you okay. I wake up having to put on a face and smile in front of everyone and do it all over again. Test day, was better sweet bc we celebrated your life and your granddaughter life Luna. You would eat them up daddy! I try to spoil them and love on them like you would!! Everybody knows you love kids! As we were walking out To release balloons to you Halo asked who were we sending the balloons to? Ciara said to your Great Granddad, she said what's his name? Ciara replied Charlie, great granddad Charlie! Halo asked where were you (which instant tears flowed from mines and mavis eyes) and Ciara told her you passed always, that she was in her belly when you had passed. And halo asked why you pass away and mavis said that's what we wanted to know.

Life isn't easy without you! I did go and see auntie Econ and gave her money! She reminds me of you most days, I get a boost of energy and a temp let of who you were through her! I think God for her bc she's keeping me going. If I'm having a rough day I can always count on her to tell me stories about you. There's been so many times where I call her in complete tears... and she just comfort me. I mean just balling my eyes out! I'm suffering without you dad, like I've never experienced anything like this, just completely grief stricken. Can't move, can't think, eyes puffy and I'm here to raise my kids but I'm in such a depression from your death that every day is a battle. I just miss you so much! I would do anything to give you a hug, to see you, to talk To you. You are everything to me! You are so loved!! So missed!! I bargain with God everyday for you to come back or if Jesus can come back any sooner! I love you daddy! I mean it from the bottom of my heart! Happy birthday!!!

All the greats are in heaven! Daddy just send me your strength,losing you has deeply broken me. I’ve gotten good at smiling in everyone face and crying soon as they leave the room!

I miss and love you forever!!

“ Daddy,

I miss you!! I wish you were here for me to talk to face to face but I know your still listening to me. Well this weekend I learned a lot Cameron has a gr, jai'len has a bd & my "mom" well does what she naturally do. I was hoping That her living in my house for a year that we would've been closer but no, we aren't. Sometimes I get upset and think "Why God choose you as my mother, we literally have nothing in common" she doesn't have any accountability & lies & uses avoidance so nobody can confront her. At this point I just feel like she's a lost cause. I been saying for years she has done more harm to me than good. From moving in my abuser until now.. it sucks because I only had one parent left so I tried to fix it but now I think I'm better off by myself. I genuinely have people around me who will love and support me and that's what I need. The lady didn't even want to sing me happy birthday on my birthday! I'm thankful for you dad! You have always been my guiding light! You always made me feel loved! Even in death we are still close as ever & I still talk to you just as much!! That'll never change!! Ever. You mean the world to me! I love you.

“Dad I definitely inherited your neck and back problems for sure! I now understand what you meant when you had neck pain! Lol!

Today I found myself saying my neck, my neck, my neck like you use to! Lol! I had a procedure done to my neck like you use to and I thought of you completely! I now have one of those pillows around my neck like you did!

You mean everything to me daddy! I hope you know and knew that! Time changes nothing I hope you know that!!! I love you beyond words and I thank you for everything you have done for me. I grieve and cry because I just miss you! Your my best friend, my comfort zone, my advisor and the person I want to be like!

I just miss you daddy, it's hard not being able to call you and hear your voice. I want to tell you everything about my day! I do so this way now, I pray you can hear me.

I hope your okay and happy and free from pain. Is my prayers.. I know you can't fully thrive in heaven because I'm so sad here without you.. it's just love daddy! I loved you so much, I would've gave my life for you! No questions asked.

Being without you is the hardest thing i battle every day. I look forward until I get to heaven so I can run to you and just hug you and never let go! I will tell you how awful life was without you and how much I'm grateful and love you!

There's this huge hole in my heart and this void I can't explain that's been there since I got that call! I wouldn't wish this pain on my worst enemy!

I'm surviving because I want to make you proud of me! I'm going to accomplish everything I know you wanted me to do! I know you want me to pull it together but it's really hard and I'm trying! So daddy please pray for me, send me that strength of yours and knowledge! Daddy watch over me and when I'm sad continue to send me the signs you do to let me know I'm not alone!

Please please come visit me in my dreams!! I love you forever!!!!!!!

“ Losing a parent is hard itself but watching you leave this earth was another beast for me.. I can't get the image out my head... that day replays in my head often. That phone call made my heart drop instantly daddy! To hear the nurse say they are working on you.. I died right there!

My mind was so gone I put anything on and ran out the house. Drew drove there so fast within 2hrs I prayed and prayed and prayed the hardest I've ever prayed for you, I begged God for your life, my mom sent me a picture of you on life support when I was half way there.. I couldn't believe it.

I finally made it to the hospital and you were in the emergency room, they were stitching your head up in the back, mavis was on your left side praying and I held your hand on the right side. I begged God again and pleaded I've never felt so helpless! They finally moved you to ICU room 4009 to be exact I never left your side I watched your vitals, I made sure your pillows were fluffy, I made sure you were comfortable and I had to make medical decisions.. all your friends came Omar and Sid. Soon as Sid was there I seen your heartRate dropped to 39 I ran for the nurse and there you were having another heart attack In front of me. I begged you to fight for me, we got your pulse back and you were back with me the doctor said your a very sick man that you needed dialysis people forced me to say no.. I wanted to say yes.. they wanted me to let you go in peace.. they took you off life support and all I remember was listening to Yolanda adams I open up my heart, praying over you holding your left hand and laying on your chest and watching your heart rate fall until I seen that flat line.. sept 6, 2017 @6:39pm my heart was crushed, shattered even, I blame myself because I could've saved you if I was there when you fell. I would've noticed the signs..

I say this even though your on a spiritual plane daddy, I'm down here still by your side, you'll always have me just like I know I'll always have you. You are my hero! You are my strength! There's not a second I don't think of you! I love you! I miss you. I cry a lot 2 years later but there's certain deaths you just don't come back from and I'm trying to pick up the pieces that's left.

Today my phone lit up and it Joggled a random memory from when we lived in Shaker Village . Lol I was remembering when you would always hang your pants up on the closet door and anytime I needed money you would go to those pants and grab it or ask me to bring them to you.. that memory took me back to a kid and gave me a brief second of feeling whole and at home again! The weight that was off my shoulders was gone! Until I snapped right back into this nightmare I'm living in without you. I miss you daddy!!!

God please keep sending me these moments❤️

“ I’m a little late daddy on telling you about DeOn’Tae wedding.. daddy you would’ve been so proud! Mavis did a great job raising him. During the reception the bride and her father danced and I ran to the bathroom and just cried for I know I will never have that chance with you.. completely broke my heart. Things have not gotten easier for me. My heart is in shambles without you, i walk around trying to smile but it’s becoming a job.. I’m literally heartbroken .. I don’t feel whole .. I can literally feel the piece of my heart that’s gone. When you passed you took a big part of me with you.

I’ve never known hurt like this before. I swear I can’t even pull myself up most days..I’m living in a nightmare I can’t seem to get out off. I know you want me to live life but this heartbreak knocked me completely down. I was always and still is a daddy’s girl..you’ve done so much for me and I didn’t get the chance to pay your back is my biggest regret.

“ Daddy,

Today, I'm homesick, not from a place.. but from missing you.

I love you beyond words, I'm still having a hard time. I never expected this.. I wasn't ready, my heart wasn't ready. I long for your return, I ask God everyday to make a way but I know he needs you too.

I play your voicemails to get me by, I make sure my kids remember you... it just hurts me my daddy is gone! Losing a parent is no joke, there's no real pain like this.

Watch over me Daddy, guide me, I need you... I love you!

See you soon!

“ Oh Daddy my heart is beyond broken.. words can’t describe the hurt I’m enduring without you. I’m constantly thinking about you and talking about you! You are my WORLD! I love you so much!!! You my best friend, a daughter looks to her father as her protector.. I’m so lost without you Daddy! I can’t sleep at night because I constantly replay the day you left me in my head. Worst day of my life was losing you. I felt the tonic plates in my heart shift the day you died. Please God give me strength, I just miss my daddy so much! I would do anything to have him with me!
