Charlie Simmons known to others as “Gie” departed this world December 23, 2016 with all the people he loved gathered around him. Charlie was a man with the greatest sense of humor and an unwavering love for others. His faith and belief in others made him the man he was, he was strong and had one heck of a fighting spirit. If there was one word used to describe Charlie, it would be phenomenal. He was a man of substance and made do with what he had and asked for nothing in return. Charlie’s age alone was a testimony of how God loved him and the good life he lived. Charlie loved spending time with his family and friends, especially his grandchildren. When nobody else could make a way, out of no way he could. Charlie was the type of man that would give you the shirt off his back. Some of his favorite pastimes was visiting others nobody else had seen in a longtime, telling jokes that wasn’t even funny but made you laugh anyway. Going to the gas station on Beech

Daly where he played the same number for years. He loved traveling to the family reunions, we were always the family that travel the furthest and he was the eldest member of the family. He loved that gray Mercury, Charlie was a devoted husband, father, granddad and a good friend to many. He was a joy to be around and a blessing to anyone who knew him. Charlie will forever be etched in the hearts of those whom loved him. He was truly a beautiful man with a kind heart, that has touched the lives of us all. Charlie you will be forever loved and never forgotten.
