

Mr. Charlie James Williams

August 7, 1949 - December 24, 2014

The Life And Legacy Of Charlie James Williams:

Charlie James Williams was born on August 7, 1949 in Greenwood, Mississippi to Stonewall Jackson Williams and Charley Williams who both preceded him in death. Charlie was the seventh of nine children. He was a member of Salem Baptist Church in Greenwood, Mississippi under the leadership of Pastor J. L. Featherson.

Charlie was educated in the Mississippi School system. He graduated from Amanda Elzy High School and later went to Norfolk State College, where he played football.

In 1968, Charlie met and fell in love with his lifelong partner, Doris Ervin. To this union three children were born, Corey Sr. (who preceded him in death), Jennifer and Angelia. Charlie worked for General Motors for 20 years and later retired and opened up his very own car wash.

Charlie was affectionately known to family and friends as "Bear". He loved to cook, barbeque, have fish frys, play dominoes and enjoy backyard gatherings with family and friends.
