“ *To the Armstrong and Lovett Families, I want to express my condolences. My parents lived next door when we all lived on Baldwin and I too worked for AT&T, but not in the same department with Charlotte. May God give you peace during this very difficult time. I am praying for you.

To Minnie, John and the Armstrong-Lovett Families, our prayers and thoughts are with you as you begin your journey of mourning Charlotte. When you lose someone very precious, it is difficult to find words, but please know that others are thinking of you always. Your California Cousins, Oattie and family.
