“ My name is Andre Rozier. I am her cousin. And, I have know Charlotte since I was a teenager. After my dad, David (Anton's uncle) retired from the US Air Force, we came to Detroit to visit my Granddad, Theodore Rozier. We ended up living with our granddad, LOL. I was 12 years old then. Anton and Charlotte, used to visit all the time. How time passes so quickly as we get older. We lost touch, after I moved away and joined the Air Force. And, we were able to meet again during Anton's funeral. We stayed in touch since, and gladly my wife, Deidre, and I were able to meet all of her children...they are lot older now...My wife, and I had planned to take Charlotte out for a cruise and a dinner on our boat during this past summer. But, never was able to; COVID is one reason, and then another reason, and another reason followed. Once again, I am reminded of how precious our time is, and without a warrantee to claim. As her departure saddened both my wife and I, we have to realized how important the remaining family members still on this earth to survive graciously knowing their family will lookout for each other, as I saw Charlotte demonstrated. And, I only re-knew (if it is a word) her for a short time, the second time around; sad to say. I'm certain her legacy will continue as Charlotte's children honor and cherish her memory. Our deep hearted sincere condolences, and we pray for your strength.
