

Ms. Cheryl Ann Bell

September 8, 1959 - August 25, 2013

Cheryl Ann Bell was born September 8, 1959 to the late Robert and Gladies Bell in Detroit, Michigan. She was the seventh child of eight children and the youngest of twin Darryl. Cheryl was loved and adored by many. She was also known as “Emmi” or “Momma Cheryl.”

Cheryl was educated through the Detroit Public Schools system where she received her high school diploma. She then went on to Wayne State University where she graduated with her bachelors in accounting. Cheryl accepted Christ as her Lord and Savior, she was a member of Cedar Christian Church. Cheryl not only loved the Lord, but she embraced her relationship with the Lord and made it known that she was blessed and highly favored.

Cheryl was blessed to do and enjoyed being a blessing to others. She not only blessed her family, but every person she came into contact with. Even if it was just a “Hey Pooh,” she was still sharing and made you feel loved. She enjoyed giving herself away and being used by God. On Sunday, August 25, 2013 it was not just any day of rest but it was Cheryl's day to rest.

“ To the Bell family,

*“Whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die”
John 11:26*

The Jones and Berman family extend to you, and your family, our sincere sympathy in the home going of Cheryl Ann Bell. It is our desire that the Lord will comfort you during this time. I remember Cheryl to be a pleasant and kind person. Also, I remember how close Cheryl was with her sister Niece although I did not see them that often when I did they were always together.

We love you all and are praying for you,
