

Mrs. Cheryl Smith

December 29, 1960 - July 13, 2017

Celebrating The Life Of Cheryl Smith:

Cheryl was born on December 29, 1960 in Brooklyn, New York to Catherine and John Jackson and Enoch Peck.

Cheryl accepted Christ at an early age. She attended the New York Public School System. Cheryl graduated from Francis Lewis High School.

Cheryl was employed by Blue Cross Blue Shield after graduating from high school.

Both of Cheryl's fathers preceded her in death, John Jackson and Enoch Peck.

Cheryl met and married Michael Smith and they began a life together in Orlando, Florida. To this union two beautiful daughters were born, Nicole Smith and Mesha Smith. Michael Smith also preceded Cheryl in death.

Cheryl decided to move to Detroit, Michigan once her girls began school. She worked for Ford Motor Company for almost ten years and then later transferring to Detroit Diesel, which she stayed there until she became ill.

Growing up with you was so much fun because our families shared a lot - dinners at Grandma's house and a lot of weekends at each others house. Time and distance had come between us, but it never made a difference in the love. Rest in peace dear cousin.
