“ Christene Ford Arnold

a daughter

a sister

a wife

a mother

a grandmother

a great grandmother

a auntie and much much more

Our mother Willa Ford McKinney auntie's "Irish twin" born exactly 2 years and two days apart

Auntie Christene would fully understand and want us to take care of her little sister

Family ment so much to my aunt

I'm so very happy that my mother and my auntie were able to have a short phone conversation this past Christmas

Family was one of the greatest gifts our auntie shared

There are so many beautiful memories

When my mom was unavailable

Auntie filled in

I will miss the many phone conversations I had with Auntie

Especially the ones she told me over and over again (smile) about the time she had to take her oldest sister Betty Ford Johnson to the hospital for the birth of my cousin, Debra

Then rushing to the other side of town to take my mother to the hospital for my birth all in less than 48 hours

Both of her sisters husband's were in the military, so Auntie filled in again and in many other ways

Her Independence was the proudest point other than family

Auntie was so proud of being 90 and still able to attend to the beautiful flowers in her yard. cooking for everyone (what a great cook) and even sometimes shoveling a little snow.

She didn't have to do that, but she said " I'm able and blessed " she was proud of that !

One memory at my daughters wedding that Auntie came in the dressing room to help me dress Johanna

She was so happy coming to California and fussing over her

*Auntie said " I don't have a daughter so this makes me very happy" Yes, Christine Arnold will be missed by a great deal of people
We have another angel to look over us her family
We will meet again until then I will try to fill in Love you forevermore Little sister Willa, Nieces, Laura and Johanna Nephews Billy and Darryl
The McKinney crew*

“ *Your mother was a vibrant compassionate, humorous and beautiful woman.
She shared many tips with me and a cake recipe over 40 years ago.
My prayers to John, Terry and the entire Arnold family. May God grant you comfort, peace, and cherished memories.*

*Johnny and Terry, my heart is heavy as I can't be there in Detroit as you lay Aunt Chris to rest. I'd be there if I could. I loved Aunt Chris to Infinity and beyond. May God be with you tomorrow and always.
Love,
Lynn*
