

Ms. Christina Marie Crenshaw

December 7, 1988 - October 15, 2018

Christina's Story:

Christina Marie Crenshaw was born on December 7, 1988 to the proud parents Larry Crenshaw (deceased) and Ms. Suzanne Crenshaw.

Christina attended Detroit Public Schools and graduated in June 2015. Later Christina attended Adult Well Being Day Program until she grew ill.

Christina loved going to school and riding on the bus. All of the drivers really cared for her. Christina brought some sunshine with every ride.

Christina loved riding and traveling with her mother. Taking trips to the grocery store and listening to music was her most favorite. She loved being around people and was just a social butterfly.

Christina had a very special bond with her only brother Laurent. Even though he lived miles away she knew that he was going to talk to her on the phone and soon he would be getting off the airplane to visit her. She anticipated those big hugs every time he arrived.

On September 7, 2018, Christina was hospitalized at Henry Ford Hospital in Detroit, Michigan. Later to be diagnosed with her illness.

On October 15, 2018, while still being hospitalized Christina lost her strength to the battle of cancer and Jesus called her home.
