

Mrs. Christina Williams

March 28, 1980 - July 26, 2019

In Loving Memory Of;

Christina Lolita Williams was born on March 28, 1980 in Detroit, Michigan to Johnny Lee Williams and Irene Williams. She was the youngest of her siblings.

She accepted Christ at an early age. Christina attended Remus Robinson Middle School, Finney High and later received her GED.

She was the mother of three beautiful daughters, Zriyana Nicole, Madison Terri and Willow Lynn. She was joined in holy matrimony to William Miller and became stepmom to Anthony, Ashley and Audrey.

Chrissy had a zest for life. She was very ambitious and she loved her children. She moved from Detroit, Michigan to Raleigh, North Carolina seven years ago to fulfill her goals to further her education and pursue business adventures. She enrolled and graduated from Sherrills University of Barbering and Cosmetology. She also trained for design. She learned a lot from the beauty care industry.

Chrissy was the CEO of Rich and Rare Lash Bar. She branded her products and some were being sold in beauty supply stores in North Carolina. While living in north Carolina, she developed friendships with many of her coworkers, fellow classmates and teachers. She also kept close relations with family and friends from Detroit. She loved music and motivational speakers. She was always encouraging to her nieces and nephews to follow their passions in life.
