“ Ms Christine loved and babysat my daughter Mackenzie and she was the godmother to my twin nephews, Phillip and Brent. She was a part of my family especially when I lost my parents, she was a very sweet person and done so much for those around her. Love to the Jackson family from Antoinette Caldwell (Mackenzie and Jordan)

“ To the Jackson Family,

May God continue to be with you all during your time of bereavement and as you prepare for the home going of Mother Jackson. During your darkest hour we pray that you will feel God's love present and lean on Him for support. We know every day won't be easy but God will see you through.

“ To the Jackson Family

*For in your time of sorrows, know that God is with you.
He will hold you in His arms and wipe away your tears.
God will be there to mend your broken heart.
He'll catch you when you fall and strengthen you when you're weak.
Mother Jackson fought a good fight and ran her course.*

“ To the Jackson Family,

*We lift you all up in prayer during your time of bereavement.
We pray that our Lord continue to be with you all during these difficult times. We know he will be there to comfort you all when needed.
And don't ask yourself 'why', but know that God is in control.
He understands all of your feels and know that he won't let you face them alone.*

“ To the Jackson Family,

On behalf of Pastor Crowder & the entire St. Galilee Church family, we would like to express our most sincere sadness at the passing of Mother Christine Jackson one of the Mothers of St. Galilee M. B. Church. During times like these we must continue to turn to God for strength and guidance. And know that you all are in our thoughts and our prayers.

While we know it hurts to lose a family member so dear to your hearts. We hope that you all can take comfort in knowing that Mother Jackson fought a good fight, she kept the faith & finished her course and now resting peacefully. Mother Jackson lives on not only in our memories, but with our heavenly Father as well.

If there is anything you all need during this difficult time, please don't hesitate to reach out to your St. Galilee family for support. We are here for you emotionally, spiritually and physically.

Your church family,

Pastor Crowder & the St. Galilee Church family
