

Ms. Ciara Unique Moore

July 22, 1995 - November 22, 2015

Celebrating The Life of Ciara Unique Moore:

Ciara Unique Moore was born July 22, 1995 to Jerome and Debra Moore in Detroit, Michigan. She was the youngest of three (3) children. Ciara was preceded in death by her grandparents Arthur Moore, Ida Moore, Earl and Eleanor Dowell, also her step-grandfather John Nixon.

Ciara graduated from Clawson High School on the honor roll. She furthered her education at Oakland Community College with three years on the Dean's list while working at Mary Wood Nursing Care facility until her sudden passing, and graduated cosmetology on the honor roll. Her goal was to be a physician, specifically a pediatrician.

On Sunday, November 22, 2015, God called for his new angel, Ciara. Her smile, laugh, caring ways and all the love she displayed will truly be missed. Ciara had a special bond with people and a beautiful smile. She enjoyed life to the fullest. She enjoyed spending time with her family, friends, her dog Stacks, reading, computers, and playing the organ. On her 21st birthday she dreamed of going to Las Vegas to celebrate.

“ Ciaira was such a beautiful young woman and such a beautiful soul with so much life in front of her. I never understand when a wonderful life is cut short. Unique is such a perfect middle name! Even though I only knew her briefly, I remember her smile, her stories, and her love of family.

Debra, I'm so sorry for your and Jerome's loss. My family's best thoughts and prayers go out to you and your family.

Much love, for all the love and care you and Ciaira put out in to the world,

--Kara Heinrichs (daughter of Gary and Gerry Heinrichs, who you both cared for so wonderfully)

“ Dear Moore family, I am so sorry to hear about your loss. Losing a loved one is very difficult to deal with. In the bible at Isaiah 25:8 it tells of a time when death will be no more. I hopened those words bring you comfort, along with the love from family and friends.
