

Ms. Clara Mae Allen

February 1, 1925 - September 9, 2018

A Service of Thanksgiving and Love Celebrating The Life Of Clara Mae Allen:

Clara Mae was born to the late Arthur Julius Bates and Emma Lue Bates on February 1, 1925, both preceded her in death. Her only brother George Julius Bates also preceded her in death.

She confessed hope in Christ at an early age and was a loyal member of Nativity of Our Lord Church. She was a faithful and committed servant of God until her sickness and death. Clara gave untiring service to the Food Program, a member of the Out Reach Program, a lector, and Eucharistic Minister.

Clara Mae and David Allen were joined in Holy Matrimony and their marriage was blessed with a beautiful baby girl named Marquitta.

She matriculated through the Detroit Public School System and graduated from Miller High School. She worked at Champion Spark Plug, Lippmans Sporting Good, Famous Furniture, Atlas' Furniture, and Rogers Furniture. She retired from Dayton Hudson Department Store in 1995.

Early Sunday, September 9, 2018, this servant of God, Clara Mae Allen fell asleep in the arms of her Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ.

One may well imagine that at that precise moment in time, Jesus Christ, The Lord of the Church whispered in her ear, "well done, good and faithful servant."

Clara's life has been exemplary, touching us all in a very special way. The works of Clara demonstrated her obedience to God who commanded that we love one another, that we feed the hungry, clothe the naked, visit those who are sick and in prison, that we minister to those who are without the household of faith. Even in sickness, Clara encouraged others by her positive outlook and determination to love everyone. She had such a loving heart and sweet smile.

Family members and friends bid her fond farewell.
