“ Clara was a good friend of mine for over thirty years. She was a great person and she had such a sweet personality. I met her when she was working at Jennies Beauty Shop in Detroit, Michigan. Those were the days. We had so much fun at that shop. She was a good singer too. I loved to attend her Choir's concerts at Greater Southern Missionary Baptist Church. She loved her Church and that was always a special time for her. She was also very helpful and thoughtful to others and would always lend a hand wherever needed. My sincerest Condolences to her sons, her family members, and her friends. You have my Prayers. May she never be forgotten. Rest in eternal peace, Clara. You will be missed. Sincerely, Charlene Studstill, Westland, Michigan
