“ What moves through us is a silence, a quiet sadness, a longing for one more day, one more word, one more touch. We may not understand why you left this earth so soon, or why you left before we were ready to say good-bye, but little by little, we begin to remember not just that you died, but that you lived. And that your life gave us memories too beautiful to forget"

Today and always, may loving memories bring you peace, comfort, and strength. My condolences goes out to the family, and may all the happy memories uplift you each and everyday. Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted - Matthew 5:4

“ It seems unreal that you are gone. You were always such a compassionate and caring person. I pray for peace for your family as you are no longer in pain. Rest in heaven, my friend.

“ A Message Of Sympathy For Your Family : May these few words of sympathy help at least in part, to ease the burden that you bear and the sadness in your heart....Thinking Of You At This Sad Time. The Bible says at Acts. 24:15; that God will resurrect our loved one, a God who does not lie assures us of this hope. Titus. 1:2.

“ Claudette crossed my mind only a few days before I learned of her passing. We sat next to each other at BCBSM for years. The department we worked in was new and we often had to "experiment" to get our work processed, sharing ideas on what we thought might be the best solution. We, also, shared stories about our children. My heartfelt condolences go out to her family.
