“ Denise, Danielle, Zara, Zyair. family & friends of Ms. Claudette Lunkins, My deepest condolences to all who knew and loved her. I met Claudette ten years ago when I started working with OLHSA Grandparents Raising Grandchildren. She connected the Kinship Care support group with Oak Park Schools and secured space in their board building for pre-pandemic support group meetings, presentations and she was an inspiring mentor. I will sorely miss her collaboration, and her fierce passion for family and children. R.I.P. Claudette

Danielle and Denise just want to tell you how much your mother meant to me. She was always an advocate for both students and teachers. She wanted the best for you and all other kids in Oak Park. Unfortunately I will be out of town this weekend attending a wedding, but I will be thinking of you and your family. Special Lady!!!! Ron Payok
