

Mr. Cleveland McKenzie Hall (a.k.a. "Kenny")

November 16, 1939 - June 5, 2013

On November 16, 1939, in the city of Detroit, state of Michigan, Cleveland McKenzie Hall, became the firstborn child of Simon Cleveland and Mary Elizabeth McCrary-Hall. Immediately, he was called "Kenny" and carried that name throughout his personal and professional life.

Kenny grew up in a section of Detroit called "The North End," where he attended Balch and Alger Elementary and Hutchins Junior High Schools. His eyes would twinkle whenever he spoke of childhood friends like Cecil Franklin and Smokey Robinson, and how they sand on the street corner until the street lights came on. He would always laugh when he told the story of the never repaid lunch money he loaned Smokey before he made it big with Motown. Kenny was a 1958 graduate of Northern High School and attended Highland Park Community College for one year. In 1959, he joined the U.S. Naval Academy and became a medic until he was released from dual active duty in 1963 and honorably discharged in 1965 from both the Navy and Marines.

While in the navy, Billy Henry, one of Kenny's many friends, introduced him to his sister Grace.

Unbeknownst to Kenny, Grace's mother, Mia, recognized how nice he was and advised Grace to seriously consider dating him. Mia's excellent advice led to Kenny and Grace marrying in June of 1965. To this union two beautiful daughters were born—Karen DeAnn and Kristin LaShawn.

After faithfully serving his country, Kenny began working at Chrysler Corporation's Dodge Main Plant. Wanting a more secure future for he and his family, Kenny enrolled in school to become an X-Ray, Cat Scan and subsequently Nuclear Medicine Technician. He initially trained at Detroit Memorial and Detroit Receiving Hospitals, and worked at both St. Joseph Sisters of Mercy Hospital and Samaritan Health Center, where he retired in 2002. After retirement, he worked a brief time at the Detroit Medical Center-Harper Hospital.

As a loving, dedicated and protective husband, Kenny often serenaded his wife, Grace, by singing the Temptations "My Girl," which ultimately became their favorite song. As an equally loving, dedicated and protective father, Kenny worked multiple jobs, to ensure that his daughters not only attended the better schools, but also never went without any of life's basic necessities. It was not uncommon for him to leave work early to attend his daughters' school activities, only to return to complete his work shift after the event was over. Kenny never met a stranger and held all of his friends close especially those from elementary school. He was the glue that kept all friends and special coworkers together throughout the years.

Because of Kenny's "North End" experience growing up, his knowledge of that part of the city and the people in it, made him a historian of sorts. You could ask him any question and he would give you the answer. If you gave him an answer, he would challenge you with a question. He was also a music aficionado, that loved "Pure" jazz and today's R&B. In high school, he marched in the marching band while playing a used alto saxophone his parents sacrificed to purchase for him. He played the same sax when he and his high school friends made a "78" vinyl record, that no one ever heard! That same "vintage instrument" was handed down to his sister and then his nephew, Benjamin IV, who also used it while they were in school.

Kenny loved fishing, playing bid whist, going to the casino and spending time with his family--especially his three granddaughters. It was amazing to see him coordinate same day travel to multiple Casinos to pick up his "free gift," and still be on time to pick up his granddaughters from school. He had an infectious sense of humor that kept everyone in his presence laughing. Nothing ever seemed to phase him. He was one of a kind and will surely be missed.

Karen you are apart of a spiritual family as well, and when you are suffering, we all are suffering with you. (1Corinthians 12:26) I can't begin to say I know how you feel, because I don't. But what I do know is" God is love." He also is a "God of comfort, and through His comfort we comfort one another." (1John 4:8; 2 Corinthians 1:3,4) Karen we love you and we are priviledged to have you as a member of our family. May God be with you and your family at this time.

“ Karen, Kris Eric and the rest of the Hall, Hodge and Taylor families - My heart is so heavy at the loss of your dad. I have only known Mr. Hall for a short period of time. I liked him the first time I met him. I called him dad. Seeing how loving and supportive he was of his family, attending various events of his children and grand children, which is so rare in todays society. Mr. Hall truly loved his family. When I saw all the beautiful pictures on the wall and how remarkably placed they were, he was truly dad and grandpa. I know he will be truly missed.. Karen, Kris and family I have no idea of the pain you have in your heart, losing your dad so sudden. This is a horrible tragedy that my friends and your family are going through.

Words cannot express the sorrow you're feeling now. But it is comforting to know that your heavenly Father Jehovah knows your pain. He lovingly says, "Here I am, I myself will search for my sheep and care for them."(Ezekiel 34:11) Eric you are the head of your family now. Keep comforting one another and building one another up, just as you are in fact doing. May your family continue to find strength in the hearer of prayer. I hope that the many cards, hugs, kind words and loving prayers sustain you and grant your family peace.

As the days ahead become too hard to endure, support one another. Pray together. Cry together and laugh together . Hold on the treasured memories you stored in your heart. Prayer is real communication with our Grand Creator Jehovah. He knows the DNA to bring Mr. Hall back to life. All of his good deeds will not be forgotten by the one who created him. Even Jesus said, "You will be with me in paradise". Luke 23:43. Jesus displayed love by giving us a glimpse of the future by bringing back to life some in his day. "There will be a resurrection".

Always remember, a wonderful place to be is in Jehovah's memory. Proverbs 3:5-7, Isaiah 26:19, Isaiah 41:10 & 13 and John 5:28-29.

“ GOD Bless You, Deborah, Ben, and Family,

It was with great sadness I received the tragic news of Mr. Cleveland McKenzie Hall's loss of life. His departure from this world is even more disconcerting now learning he is a member of your family. These are the most difficult times in life when GOD calls on us to know that your Brother is with him and not us; but Kenny's Spirit lives in you by the abundance LOVE I know he gave and received. Keep in mind, as you go forward that LOVE never dies.

“ Dear Debbie, Harvey, Jai and Family,

My thoughts and prayers are with you at this sad and painful time. I did not know Kenny, but knowing Debbie and my cousin Harvey and hearing people remember him, I know we have lost a remarkable and loving man. I am often filled with sadness and anger about the senseless and tragic effects of gun violence in our communities. Now that it has happened in my family, I am doubly saddened and outraged. I cannot imagine losing a sibling in any way, but how horrible to lose a loved one in such a way.

May you all find comfort in the legacy Kenny left and in the support of family and friends.
