

Mr. Clifford George Nichols

November 2, 1946 - November 22, 2014

Celebrating The Life Of Clifford George Nichols:

Clifford George Nichols was born November 2, 1946 to Mr. and Mrs. Elliott and Dorothy Nichols in Detroit, Michigan. He accepted Christ at an early age. He attended Hamtramck Public Schools, where he excelled in music and sports. He was invited to play instrumentation in two JL Hudson's thanksgiving parades.

He served in the United States Army, later entering the automotive industry, resulting into serving 30 years, from the Chrysler Corporation. He united in holy matrimony to the love of his life, Cynthia Elaine Smith.

He was a jokester, a loving and fun husband to Cynthia, who he romanced in their 28 years, a loving grandfather. He greatly enjoyed his mother's cooking along with his Aunt Carole's baking treats.

He was lovingly over protective of his daughter, Carmen whom he often referred to as his baby girl, admiring her determination towards life. Clifford was a proud father of his twin boys, Randell, who received a full four year academic scholarship to Michigan State University, graduating in May 2013, becoming the youngest manager at The Hertz Corporation. Brandon, whom he was highly boastful about when he received a promising film opportunity with "Tyler Perry," his live stage performance at the Detroit Music Hall (in which he was the loudest audience participant), and he was joyfully proud of his well-produced 43 minute movie documentary, "From Dreams to reality" showcasing fans in video from the United States, Germany, The Philippines, London, England and Antigua.
