

Mrs. Clydie Mae Asberry

May 28, 1923 - September 6, 2013

Mrs. Clydie Mae Asberry was born in Americus, Georgia to the union of Willie Mae and Charles Dismukes on May 28, 1923. Her siblings, two brothers and a sister preceded her in death.

Mrs. Asberry was joined in holy matrimony to Robert Asberry, Sr. in Americus, Georgia in 1940.

Mrs. Asberry worked for the school system of Meadville, Pennsylvania until retirement in 1988.

She relocated to Detroit, Michigan in 1993 to be closer to her family. Mrs. Asberry was lovingly called "Grannie Annie" and "Great Granny" by grand and great-grandchildren. She loved gathering family together for many celebrations.

On Friday, September 6, 2013, Mrs. Clydie Mae Asberry said "Yes" and agreed with the will of the Father to evolve to another plane of life.

“ Thank you for helping so many of us get through the rough spots in life ,I could always look forward to going to aunt clydes house as a child ,so many memories all good ,that melodic voice always seemed like she was singing to you when she talked to you , even when she scolded us it sounded sweet .She will always remain in my heart, and prayers.For those that didn't get a chance to know her you really missed out on a treat ,beautiful inside and out is what she was and,will always be to me.You just don't know what love really is until it's gone .Some may say she's in a better place but even that better place is better because she's there.Hope to see you again on the other sidePayton Charles LaMarr Jenkins (Marty)

“ God's Garden

*God looked around the garden and found an empty space.
He then turned down to earth and saw your tired face.
he put his arms around you, and lifted you to rest.
Gods garden must be beautiful, he always takes the best.
He knew that you were suffering.
He knew that you were in pain.
He knew that you would never get better on earth again.
He saw the road was getting rough,
and the hill was to hard to climb,
so he closed your weary eyelids and whispered, Peace, be thine.
It broke our hearts to lose you. but you didn't go alone.
For part of us went with you.
The day God called you home.*

“ Time is never on my side, you have all answers to my many questions about where I come from. I never made enough time to get all the answers. Left with still so many questions. If I had another 90 years that would not be enough. Love ShannonJenkins-Luke
