“ Hi Daddy aka "Buck" Missing You Much, But I can see You so clear dancing in the kitchen, Den, Church anywhere because you were always filled with the Holy Ghost and You loved to sing "Old Spiritual Gospel and the songs You Yourself wrote "Get In The Word" was one of them, You were The Best That God Created and I continuously Thank him for my being a Part of You and all the memories stored of the many times spend with You, Talking to You, Pictures, taking You to see Your Brothers and Sister. I remember so clearly How when You walked in the room to see Your sister (Aunt Lila), Both of your eyes Lit up and the biggest smile came upon your faces although it was noisy but that moment the stillness was like the sun was shining in her room What a reunion and I am so Glad to have shared in the many moments of happiness and even more happy that I was able to create the moments for You. What a Heart thumping Moment to see a Sister and Brother Reunion. Wow...The time I took You to see Your brother "Uncle Arthur. The unon included 1st Cousin Fred and John Mitchell You, me. You all talked about your childhood, your youth, Family just so much and we laughed and had so much fun, Uncle Arthur said Man I have to go to the bathroom, Now Yall wait until I get back before this service continue. Uncle Arthur called out to one of his girls (Betty) if the bathroom was open, Cause he didn't want to miss any of this "Church service". We all laughed. and You know they talked on and on and on. Buck I miss You dearly. Daddy You were the Glue, Mama is what made it Stick. Rest Daddy Love You and Miss You. Thank You Lord for giving Us All the Time We Shared. Lot Of Love Your Baby Girl Barbara...

Love and Miss you Buck, God Blessed me and family with reruns of Many, Many Memories of You and I thank God Daily for being Blessed with a "Great Dad" Your Smile is infectious, Beautiful and Your laugh is captive. I remember You singing and dancing/shouting around the house, Your Prayers, the serious conversations, Most of all I was blessed to have been able to catch Our Joyous times on video. I enjoyed spending so many years growing up in our homes on Sheridan, Snowden. I enjoyed taking You and Ma out to eat, Shop, Church, over to Family outings, and just my stopping over to the house and spending time with You and Mama. One time I brought you and Mama a chicken and fish sandwiches. Mama asked you "Do you want to trade your Chicken sandwich for my Fish sandwich? You looked up laughing saying to Ma "Your eyes may shine your teeth may grit, but this sandwich you won't get, We all busted out laughing. Miss You Dad. I thank God for taking You All into his Kingdon, sitting at the right of Him. No more Missing Mama, No more pain. You were a Beautiful Man. Love You Your Baby Girl Barbara
