“ I only met your Grandma a few times. Her spirit was always pleasant. She was always kind or said something funny. Her demeanor was laid back, relaxed with a look that lets you know she's to be taken serious. It was often expressed how loved she is and how much she loved her family through her grandchildren. My sincere condolences to the Bowen family. I love you all so much. May Constance gentle spirit be with the Lord now and forever more.

“ Dearest Aunty - there will never be anyone like you. Sassy, Committed, Faithful and Fierce I will forever cherish our talks. Everything from keeping my body tight to raising young black men was on the table. You are a shining example of financial fortitude, independence, motherhood and corporate loyalty. I will miss you dearly - church will never be the same. Thank you for all you did to be my mother's best friend and for being Godmother to my little sister. Have fun up there in Heaven!
Love, Ann :)

“ I will miss you so much mom. I remember the first time Rick and I arrived in Detroit from Hanau, Germany back in the tumultuous 70's . You were so welcoming and helpful when you helped me plan our impromptu wedding. I will never forget your kindness that day or your words of wisdom over the years. I love you so much and I always marveled at how much alike we were. I have one comfort that puts a smile on my face during this sad time and that's I will see you again in Glory. Sleep in peace my dear mother by law, we will unite again soon.

*Love Always,
Barbara Bowen Beck*
