

Ms. Constance Deadrell Broner-Knight

September 2, 1945 - February 17, 2024

In Loving Memory Of

Born the 2nd of September in 1945 in Mobile, Alabama to the late John Knight and Ernestine Ellenor Knight. The Knight's raised their children in a Christian environment where they were taught to respect and love the Lord.

Constance went to Southeastern High School in Detroit where she was an excellent student. After graduation she began working for Ford Motor Company. Constance retired from Ford after more than 30 successful years. She then devoted herself to community service and began driving foster children all over Michigan, with sister Joscelyn, to visit their biological parents. Constance loved the Lord and truly enjoyed helping people. She studied the Bible and was very religious. She was a saved Christian and received the Lord's blessing becoming a Minister.

Constance was joined in holy matrimony to Jerome Robert Broner. To this union two children were born; Timothy Christopher and Eric Anthony. Constance departed this life on the 17th of February 2024. In addition to her parents, Constance was preceded in death by siblings Duburt Knight, Geraldine Knight, Ethel Elizabeth Harris, and Berthena Johnson of Pensacola, Florida. Ex. Husband Jerome Robert Broner preceded her in death as well in January of 2024.

She leaves to cherish her memories her two children Timothy, and Eric with wife Danielle and their son Jacob; Her siblings Olive, Joscelyn, Cassandra, and Beverly Love; nieces, nephews, cousins, and many other friends. Many will remember her fondly and with love.
