In Loving Memory Of

Cordelia Alice Jackson (aka DeeDee and CJ) was born on July 1, 1946 in Detroit, MI to John Dozier Underwood and Muriel E. Crowder-Underwood. Cordelia passed away peacefully on November 8, 2024. Cordelia was a graduate of Cass Technical High School. She went on to pursue an occupation at Trinity Home Health as a Medical Biller.

Cordelia got married to Curtis Lee Jackson who has preceded her in death, but she went on to raise their two children.

Cordelia gave her life to Christ at an early age. She was baptized at St. Bernard Church. She went on to be a dedicated member of Ebenezer AME Church as the president of the stewardess board.

She is survived by two daughters, Lydia Alexis Jackson and Catherine Leigh Arlington. She has also been blessed with three grandchildren by her daughter Catherine: Cheyenne Constance Batzer and Cameron Lee Fitzpatrick, Tyler Anthony Murphy Arlington and this year her first great-grandson Jakobi Carter Hooks was born from her granddaughter Cheyenne. She is also survived by two sisters Rebecca A. Underwood and Muriel Kathryn Underwood-Fresh. Two nieces Bethany Underwood and Beyonka Burwell (three great-nieces), and one nephew Samuel Watkins. Siblings who preceded her in death, one sister Constance Alma Brown and one brother John D. Underwood.

Cordelia loved all kinds of music, but she did have one song that could be considered a favorite, I can't stop loving you by Kem. Her favorite flower was lilies. Her favorite stores were T.J. Maxx, Home Goods and antique stores. Her favorite perfumes were Chanel no.5, J'adore by Dior, and Angel.

Cordelia had a passion for collecting elephants. She loved spending time with family, especially her grandchildren.
