

Mrs. Corein Parker

November 22, 1923 - December 8, 2014

Celebrating The Life Of Corein Parker:

Corein Parker was born on November 22, 1923 in Stamps, Arkansas to the union of the late Emma Lee and Haywood Walker. She was the eldest of five children to this union. Her sister Amberet Gage and brothers Henry (Jot) and Tommie Walker preceded her in death.

The family later moved to Garland, Arkansas in 1940 where she was raised and attended Westrack Schools until the family moved to Texarkana, Arkansas in 1942. She worked at Red River and Chester's Barbecue and then traveled to Kansas City, Missouri and worked there. She loved living there and had on many occasions indicated that she would like to go back there. She moved back to Texarkana, Arkansas and met Henderson Parker, Jr. and they married on August 23, 1949 and they moved to Detroit, Michigan. To this union two children were born Gregory Parker who has preceded her in death and Charlayne Parker.

Corein was baptized at St. Cecilia Catholic Church on March 6, 1964 along with her husband, son and daughter. She not only loved and took care of her family; she also had so much love for everyone else. Throughout her years she would visit her parents every year in Arkansas and made sure that her children and grandson knew their family.

Corein was an active board member for PTA at St. Cecilia School. She worked at the social establishment, Nacirema Club for eighteen years and Winterhalter Junior High School for thirteen years and retired in 1989. She was such a strong and caring woman who never liked a lot of attention.

Corein made her transition on Monday, December 8, 2014.
